

atalltimes

how many girls do I have to meet until I realize you were never as beautiful as I thought?

the way your head tilts down slightly to drink the coca-cola, and the way your whole head looks soft and friendly
at all times

why do you have to get so upset when i disagree with you do i get upset when you disagree? who gets upset first? who puts up their armor? Is it me or you?
who strikes? would you rather talk with someone who agreed with everything you told them? would i?
when we have conversations like this i want to pull up your shirt slightly to lick your hip.

it's your choice,
pretty, adorable voice.
I adore you.
kiss me and mean it.

is it because he is older

more set in his ways

is it because he worked for a gallery then quit

because it wouldn't have been righteous. Is it because he is beautiful, or looks at you with more desire than I do? Is it because he dropped out of school due to money? Is it because he has tattoos? Is he more your size? Is it because he has a superior member? Is it because he skateboards, works, then goes to the bar? Is it because he listens to you more than I do? Is it because of me? Is it because you sucked my dick but I didn't eat you out and you think that is unfair? I was scared because I thought it gave you a yeast infection. Should I replace he with I and reverse the adjectives in all the sentences before this?

dear sarah your pigtails looked so cute today i wanted to grab them and pull off your head
i'm just a kid
i actually wanted to take you to a swingset and watch you drink from the water bubbler we could kiss with the metallic taste on our mouths thats basically sucking energy out of the wall, all day long.

thats a graph showing it

how come when you picked me up from the airport you looked more beautiful? was it because you got over me? I was thinking about making love to you while I was on the plane home from massachusetts, but then in the car you told me you had your period and I knew then that you didn't want me. Actually, I knew it when I kissed you hello in the baggage claim. Please remember that airplane rides will always remind you of who the most important person is.
