

Neighborhood Portrait 1998
Muni Key Stops
San Francisco CA

Permanent photographic image in ceramic steel on four Muni Key Stops on the L-Taraval line in the Sunset District. The image is made up of various selections from group photographs of people from the history of the neighborhood. Together the images form a new group portrait that represents all of the people who have lived and worked in the area.

