Harriet the Spy
She will never change.
But that doesn't mean she can't learn.

Sometimes you have to tell a lie
Harriet the Spy

You write down every single thing
That you think is true
You got ME really worried
When they took that notebook from you

You didn't know what to do
Watch Janie blow something up!
Cake and Milk is what you do

A good spy never gets caught
But you did.
Watch Sport clean up!

And you will never change, and neither will the cat man.
Ran into the cook. "Tomato sandwich again?"
Because it's impossible

A great spy knows what to do when she gets caught.
You've got to lie, Harriet the Spy
